

Harvey Potts, Development Director

Harvey Potts has more than 20 years of professional experience in the nonprofit sector and since 2016 has successfully overseen Dogs for Better Lives' development, communication, and marketing programs.

Prior to joining DBL Harvey worked in senior managerial positions with several national nonprofit organizations, including Restore America's Estuaries, National Wildlife Federation, and Washington's National Park Fund.

Earlier in his career Harvey worked internationally, serving a 3-year term with the U.S. Peace Corps in Poland, working in Bialowieza National Park (second oldest national park in the world to Yellowstone), overseeing their first-ever national grant funding program.

Harvey received his Masters in Environmental Education and Planning from Pacific Lutheran University.

