

John Drach, Training Director

John Drach has been the Training Director at Dogs for Better Lives since 2011, supervising the Assistance Dog Trainers, Kennel Techs, Client Services, and Adoption staff. He has spent 27 years in the Assistance Dog industry starting as an Apprentice Trainer at DBL.

John has trained Hearing Dogs, Service Dogs, Seizure Response Dogs, and Autism Dogs and has placed more than 350 dogs during his tenure career. John also spent 15 years at Paws with a Cause in Wayland, MI and has written Apprentice Manuals on Assistance Dog training for the U.S. Department of Labor and has trained numerous trainers on the proper training of Assistance Dogs of all types.

